BIOGRAPHY OF JAELOWUSU

When we think of Jael Owusu, or Maame Gyawu as she was affectionately called, the first things that come to mind are her warm smile, humble spirit, and generous heart.

Early Life, Education & Secular Work.

Born on 27th January 1994, Jael grew up in a loving family with her parents, Mr. Kofi Owusu and Mrs. Esther Owusu, in Kumasi. From her earliest days, she displayed not only intelligence and determination but also a genuine interest in people.

Her educational journey began at St. Mary's Kindergarten and Martyrs of Uganda School. She continued her secondary education at Yaa Asantewaa Girls' Secondary School (2008–2012).

Subsequently, Jael pursued medicine at the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology (KNUST) Medical School, where she studied from 2012 until her graduation in 2018.

In 2019, Jael moved to Accra to begin her housemanship at Korle-Bu Teaching Hospital, and the following year, she continued her senior housemanship at the Maamobi General Hospital. During this period, she was warmly hosted by a close friend as she settled into her early professional years.

In 2022, she was posted to the Somanya District Hospital as a Medical Officer before later transferring in 2023 to the Kaneshie Polyclinic, where she worked faithfully until her passing.

Spiritual Life

Raised in a Christian household, Jael developed a deep love for spiritual things from an early age. She dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication through baptism on 26th July 2009 in Kumasi.

Over the years, she associated faithfully with different congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses. She was raised in the Suntreso Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses in Kumasi from childhood. She later joined the Christian Village English Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses in 2019 when she moved to Accra, and eventually associated with the Orgle Road English Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses from 2022 until her demise.

Final Days

Jael's life was marked by her courage and unwavering faith. Her battle with terminal illness was one of dignity and courage. While her health may have weakened, her faith never did. She left behind a shining example of endurance and trust in Jehovah. She remained hopeful and spiritually strong.

On 21st September 2025, at just 31 years of age, Jael fell asleep in death. Though her life was brief, it was rich in love, service, and faith. She will be remembered not only as a dedicated daughter but most importantly, as a faithful servant of Jehovah and a dear friend to many.

Her memory lives on in the hearts of her dear parents, her family, the congregation, and countless friends whose lives she touched with kindness. In this time of sorrow, we take comfort in Jehovah's unfailing promises and look forward to the day when tears of grief will be replaced with tears of joy, as we welcome Jael back to life in a world free from pain and suffering (Revelation 21:3,4)

SONG 151

He Will Call

(Job 14:13-15)

I. Life, like a mist, appears for just a day,
Then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are
can quickly fade away,
Replaced with tears
and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he
live again?
Hear the promise God
has made:

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer. They will live at his command. For he will have a longing For the work of his own hand. So have faith, and do not wonder; For our God
can make us stand.
And we
will live forever,
As the work of his own hand.

2. Friends of our God,
thought they may pass away,
Will never be forsaken.
All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay,
From death,
he will awaken.
Then we'll come to see
all that life can be:
Paradise eternally.

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer. They will live at his command. For he will have a longing For the work of his own hand. So have faith, and
do not wonder; For our God can make us stand. And we will live forever,
As the work of his own hand.

SONG 139

See Yourself When All Is New (Revelation 21:1-5)

I. Just see yourself,
just see me too;

Just see us all in a world that is new.

Think how you'll feel,
how it will be,

To live in peace, to be truly free.

No evil one will then prevail;
Rule by our God cannot ever fail.

The time will have come for a new earthly start,

The song of our praises
will pour out from our heart:

(CHORUS)

“We thank you, our God, for all you have done. All things are new by the rule of your Son.

The fullness of our heart
overflows in our song;

All glory and honor
and praise to you belong.”

2. Now see yourself, and see me
too;

And look ahead to a world that is new.

No sight we see, no sound we hear
Will cause alarm or give rise to fear.

All has come true, just as he said;
Now over mankind, his tent is spread.

He now will awaken those sleeping
in death.

Their voices will join ours with ev'ry grateful breath:

(CHORUS)

“We thank you, our God, for all you have done. All things are new by the rule of your Son.

The fullness of our heart overflows
in our song; All glory and honor
and praise to you belong.”
